

The Solar Fuels Network warmly invites you to join us for the

4th UK Solar Fuels Symposium

on Friday 22nd January 2016

at St John's College School of Divinity, St Johns Street, Cambridge, CB2 1TP

Chaired by Erwin Reisner and Junwang Tang, this meeting will be an excellent opportunity to discuss the latest advances in solar-driven fuels research and to interact with the rapidly expanding network of researchers in the UK.

Keynote speakers:

Professor S. C. Edman Tsang – University of Oxford

Professor Kylie Vincent – University of Oxford

Dr. Julia Weinstein – University of Sheffield

Professor Gregory Wildgoose – University of East Anglia

A poster session will also enable PhD students and early career researchers to showcase their work.

Deadline for abstract submission: 15th November 2015

Deadline for SFN travel bursary application: 31st December 2015
