Freelance Research: The Future of Banking
Lloyds Banking Group | Innovation | London

Description:

An innovation team at Lloyds Banking Group (LBG) would like to further explore the future of consumer banking. How and to what extent will large Tech businesses like Google, Amazon, Apple etc, disrupt banking over the next 3-5 years? What products and services will this effect? How will this benefit the customer and what does this mean for the future of banks if they 1) fail to change 2) try to change? Are there any partnership models that could work between technology companies and banks?

Role:

Candidates will be expected to:

- Have a broad understanding of Financial Services and developments in FinTech
- Design Studies that both address user behavioural trends and attitudes
- Generate insights that both fuel ideation
- Conduct research using a wide variety of qualitative methods and a subset of quantitative methods (i.e. surveys)
- Work across functions including Innovation, Partnerships and HR
- Communicate results and illustrate suggestions in interesting and compelling ways
- Ability to write concise and compelling findings
- Experience conducting research interviews
- Excellent Communication
- Ability to work autonomously using your own technology

Successful Candidate:

LBG is looking for someone with a research focus on (but not limited to) Finance, Innovation, Entrepreneurship, Technology, Business.

LBG’s work ranges from ideation, forecasting through delivering experiments for the bank. The right candidate will be well entrenched in London’s FinTech ecosystem, have a good understanding of technology trends and innovation in the field of financial services. Successful candidates will have excellent communications skills; can work autonomously and have a broad skillset in research methods.
The successful candidate will also have the opportunity to work closely with LBG’s Innovation team and learn more about transformation at a large financial services organisation and attend weekly TED style talks from leading influencers in FinTech, Entrepreneurship and Digital.

Details:

- Project Length: 3 weeks
- Start Date: As soon as possible
- Location: Flexible Working with an expectation to spend at least 1 day per week at LBG Headquarters in Central London
- Term-time hours: up to 20 hours per week

You must agree with the following statements in order to proceed with your application:

Your information will be securely held by Lloyds Banking Group. More information on the Lloyds Banking Group can be found at www.lloydsbankinggroup.com.

If you provide details of a referee, it is your responsibility to ensure the referee is aware that you have forwarded his/her details and is happy for you to do so. Since individuals have a right under the Data Protection Act 1998 to see their personal data, and references provided to us form part of the set of personal data, we cannot guarantee the complete confidentiality of any reference.

Fraud prevention databases have been established for the purpose of allowing employers to share data on their employment fraud cases.

Should any investigation identify fraud or the commission of any other offence by you when applying for or during your employment with us, we will record the details of this on the relevant fraud prevention databases. This information may be accessed from the UK and other countries and used by law enforcement agencies and by us and other employers (and potential employers) to prevent fraud.

We may search credit reference agency files in assessing your application, including searches on any past or other names used by you and your address for the past five years. The agency also gives us other details and information from the Electoral Register to verify your identity. The agency keeps a record of our search, whether or not your application proceeds. Our search is not seen or used by lenders to assess your ability to obtain credit, although it may be used for debt tracing and to prevent money laundering. You have a right to apply to the credit reference agencies for a copy of your file.
We carry out most of our credit searches using Experian, but details may be disclosed to other agencies. The information they hold may not be the same and there is a small fee that you may need to pay to each agency that you apply to.

The Disclosure and Barring Service or Disclosure Scotland will refer the details provided on this application form to government and law enforcement bodies in accordance with any relevant legislation. The details provided to these bodies will be used for identifying possible matches to records held by them. Where such a match is established, data may be released to the Disclosure and Barring Service or Disclosure Scotland for inclusion on any certificate issued. The details provided on this form may be used to update the records held by the bodies specified above. The details provided on this application form may be used to verify your identity for authentication purposes.

Lloyds Banking Group is required by the Disclosure and Barring Service or Disclosure Scotland Codes of Practice to treat all applicants who have a criminal record fairly and not discriminate because of a conviction or other information revealed. It also obliges us to have a written policy on the recruitment of ex-offenders; a copy of which can be given to Disclosure applicants at the outset of the recruitment process.

I confirm that:

- I have been made aware and have been given copies or have access to Lloyds Banking Group's Policy on the Recruitment of Ex-offenders, Equal Opportunities Policies, and the DBS or Disclosure Scotland Code of Practice at the outset of my recruitment.
- I understand that my Disclosure information will only be used for the specific purpose for which it was requested and for which my full consent has been given.
- Unless the nature of my position allows Lloyds Banking Group under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 to ask questions about my entire criminal record, they will only ask about 'unspent' criminal convictions as defined in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.
- I understand Lloyds is conducting a Proof of Concept as part of their Innovation Lab to learn more about the recruitment of freelance talent.
- The information that I have provided in support of this application is complete and true and I understand that to knowingly make a false statement for this purpose is a criminal offence.
- I consent to the DBS or Disclosure Scotland checking the details I have provided in support of this application against the data sources specified in the notes for guidance, in order to verify my identity and process this application.

These details may be recorded and used to assist other organisations for identity and verification purposes.

For details about the type of information that we will collect and how we will use and share it please read our privacy statement on our website http://www.lloydsbankinggroup.com/privacy/careers-privacy/ or ask for a printed copy.

I confirm that the information supplied in this application is true, complete, and accurate. I understand that if any of the information is found to be false, any offer of employment may be withdrawn, or employment with Lloyds Banking Group may be terminated.

I agree and give my permission that:

- Employment, academic and credit checks can be carried out;
- You may make searches at credit reference agencies;
- You may check the information I have provided against Fraud Prevention Databases.

Please let us know if you have any questions about the use of your personal information.
